

Resources in rural communities

Teachers & students across Hawai'i

Incarcerated individuals at Waiawa, Hālawā & Women's correctional facilities

YOUR DONATION

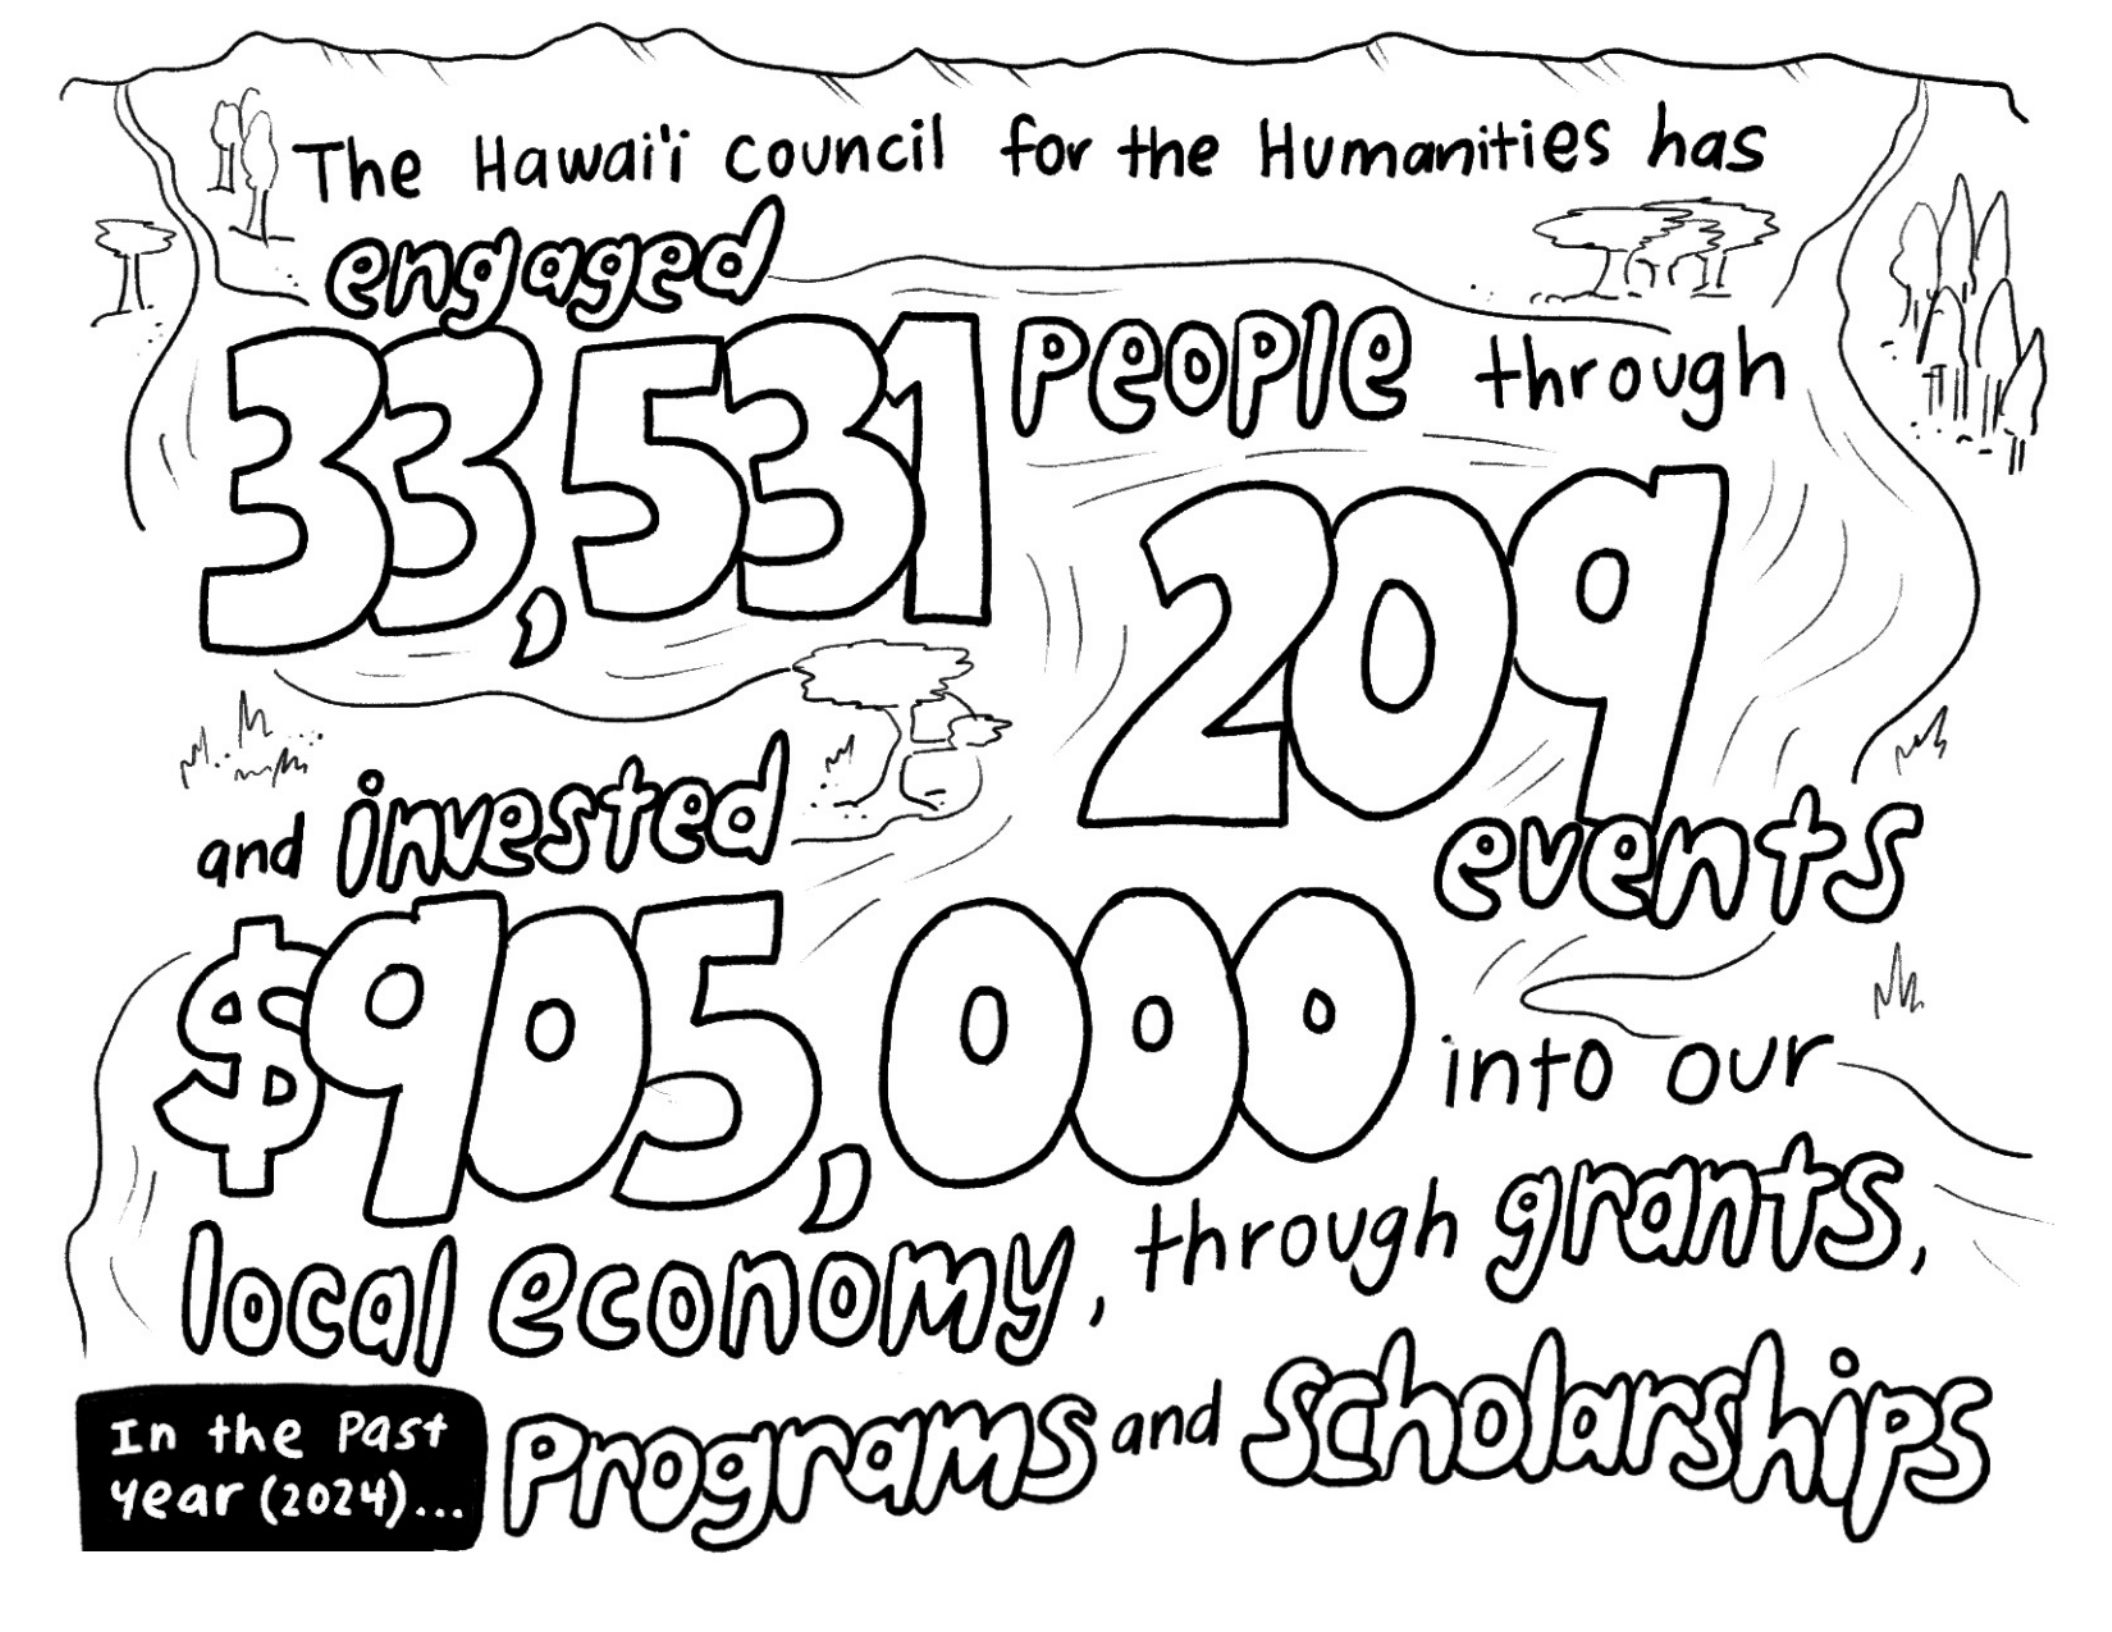

SUPPORTS

REFLECTION

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

HISTORY

CULTURE

The Hawai'i Council for the Humanities has engaged

33,531 PEOPLE through

and invested

$905,000 events

into our local economy, through grants,

In the Past year (2024)...

Programs and Scholarships

The actions of the humanities
build a more caring and responsible community.

Aiko Yamashiro
HAWAII COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The humanities
help us reflect on the {past}, imagine the {future}, and connect across our {differences}...

Kehaulani Costa
CHAIR OF THE HAWAII COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES BOARD

Valuing histories, cultures and stories
benefit all our sectors!

GROW humanities in your community!

Have tea with a loved one and ask them these 20 QUESTIONS FOR CIVIC LOVE, developed by the 2022 Hawaii History day youth council.

- Where is your wahi pana?
(special place)
- How do you express your love? (not romantic)
- What communities do you belong to and how do they represent you?
- What does belonging mean to you?

SEE THE OO
REST HERE:

WE HAVE THE COLLECTIVE POWER

TO ENSURE

Nā mana wai

THE MANY INEXTINGUISHABLE SOURCES OF WATER

Pio 'ole

WILL MAKE THE LAND LIVE

e hōola ana i ka 'āina

illustrated by: @yesterdaysbananas

@HIHUMANITIES • HIHUMANITIES.ORG
MAKE A GIFT: TINYURL.COM/HIHUMANITIESGIVE