The Hawaii Council for the Humanities has

The actions of the humanities build a more caring and responsible community.

Aiko Yamashiro
 HAWAII COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES
 EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The humanities help us reflect on the past, imagine the future, and connect across our differences...
 valuing histories, cultures and stories benefit all our sectors

Grow humanities in your community!

Have tea with a loved one and ask them these 20 QUESTIONS FOR CIVIC LOVE developed by the 2022 Hawaii History day youth council.

• Where is your wahi pana? (special place)

• How do you express your love? (not romantic)

• What communities do you belong to and how do they represent you?

• What does belonging mean to you?
